Psalms 78

My people, listen to my instruction; listen to the words from my mouth. I will declare wise sayings; I will speak mysteries from the past – things we have heard and known and that our fathers have passed down to us. We will not hide them from their children, but will tell a future generation the praiseworthy acts of the Lord, His might, and wondrous works he has performed. He established a testimony in Jacob and set up a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children so that a future generation – children yet to be born – might know. They were to rise and tell their children so that they might put their confidence in God and not forget God's works, but keep his commands. . .

So that a future generation might know...

- Why would a grandparent think “mission” with their grandchildren?
- How do grandparents see and understand their role spiritually?
- How can we influence the spiritual life and maturation of our grandchildren?
- What are some of the ways you are “in mission” or “on mission” with/to your grandchildren?
